ENGINEER KILLED

And Thirty Passengers Severely Injured in Burlington Wreck at Thayer, Iowa.

IT HAPPENED AT A CURVE

Passenger Train Toppled Down a Twenty Foot Embankment.

Ottumwa, May 6.—Burlington passenger train No. ... crashed into the engine of ... freight train at Thayer today. Engineer ... of Burlington was instantly killed ... nearly 30 passengers and trainmen ... more or less seriously injured. The following is a list of the injured.

... Garrett of Murray, Iowa, Major I. ... of Des Moines, Col. Olmstead of ... Geo. Von Hebra of Chariton, ... and wife of Omaha, W. A. ... of Chicago, Albert Brown, Mrs. Ellis ... of West Salem, Ill. serious; Clermont ... of Grinnell, I. T. McCune of ..., T. M. Gallup of Wyoming, E. ... Porter Chariton, F. F. Flag of Chicago, ... J. L. Farthing of Creston, ... W. Bond, J. D. Johnston of Chicago, ... Buchanan of Fairfield, Iowa, P. ... of Chicago, Mrs. F. A. Bell of Fairfield, ... Wm. Treffel, of Burlington, A. ... of Keokuk, E. L. Gardiner of ..., D. O. Campbell of Cleveland, S. ... of Osceola, Iowa, Walter Crowley ..., J. L. Farquhar, of Gallion, ... Dr. Averill of Afton, Ia.; T. J. Burk ... wife, Jacksonville, Fla., Mary Cherry, ..., Ia., serious; Clyde Wilson, of ..., Ia., R. B. Mitchell, of Waldon, ... B. Milner, of Clarinda, Wm. Elder ..., Rosine Newman of Talmage, ... Clarence Whitlock, of Osceola, S. E. ... of Osceola, Fireman Mike Canney ... of Ottumwa, K. Loo and, of Chicago, W. Harper of Ottumwa, Mrs. Harper.

The freight train was being switched to a side track when the collision occurred. A sharp curve prevented the engineer of a passenger train from seeing the other engine until within 200 feet of the switch, and was then too late to prevent a crash. The accident occurred at the foot of a sharp incline where the train was running at a high rate of speed in order to reach the top of the hill on the opposite side of the curve, and the crash was terrific. The freight engine was thrown across the track. The passenger engine was buried in a 30 foot embankment followed by the baggage car, express, day coach and three chair cars. Engineer Brown was buried underneath his engine and his remains were not recovered at a late hour. The crew of the freight saved themselves by jumping. A special train carrying surgeons and nurses from Ottumwa was soon on the scene and the injured were removed to the hospital at Creston.

SNOW SLIDE IN ALASKA.

Five Men Carried to Death Beneath Rush of Snow.

Seattle, Wash., May 6.—Particulars of a snow slide reported to have occurred at ... City, Alaska, about March 20, were received today by mail.

The slide occurred at Smith's Camp on ... creek, 22 miles above Sunrise. The dead:

Joe S. Graham, of California.

Fred Shackleford, Rhode Island.

Dick ... of California.

Henry Willoughby.

—Hagan of California.

The slide started on the side of an ... mountain and came thundering down over the cliff into the camp beneath, a sheer fall of 600 feet. There had been nothing to give the men a warning of the danger, and the first known of the catastrophe was when they heard the roar of the great body sliding down the mountain. Six men were buried under the mass, but Frank Flenhardy was not buried deeply as the rest and after six hours of hard work succeeded in getting out. As soon as he reached the surface he began ... others to dig for his comrades. The first reached was Gilbert DeVoe who will recover, although he was under the snow 16 hours and is badly cut and bruised. The others were dead when the rescuing party reached their bodies.

SULTAN SHOOLS PHYSICIAN

Who Unwittingly Caused His Nobs Pain.

London, May 7.—"It is rumored," says the Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Express, "that the Sultan shot dead a physician who, while attending him for ear complaint and massaging him unwittingly caused his majesty intense pain. The chamberlain rushed into the room, and the sultan, who supposed there was an attempt upon his life, fired again, wounding the chamberlain."

STOCKS STILL BOOM.

Big Advance Monday Especially in Northern Pacifics.

New York, May 6—The interrupted speculative advance was renewed today with great violence, the speculative holders of stock apparently having been entirely reassured by a check to the reaction achieved Saturday.

The opening sales were at the extreme advances from 1 to 4¼ points and at prices in some instances, varying as much as two points on simultaneous sales. Grangers, Pacifics, trunk lines and southwesterns proved to be most active stocks. There was a continued dearth of news to account for the strength of the market in general or Northern Pacific in particular. Consolidation continued to be a magic word to influence trading. Northern Pacific made an extreme advance of 23 points with no very important reaction on the way up. A long string of 1000 to 6000 shares and blocks were recorded, but successive prices though changed did not recede ⅜ points after the opening. when a second sale was made at a jump of 2 cents over the first sale, with four points over Saturday. The movement in Canadian Pacific was apparently sympathetic and reached an extreme 13⅛. Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic common and preferred stocks rose about five points each, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie 2⅜ and preferred six, following Canadian Pacific.

Aside from these there were few stocks which exceeded the opening price, among them Atchison, which rose an extreme of 6⅜ points, and a number of less prominent stocks. Pittsburg, C. C. C. & St. L. rose 8½, Minneapolis and St. Louis 7, and the coalers generally from 1½ to 5 points. None of these gains were fully maintained. In fact profit taking was in steady progress all day, under cover of strength in individual stocks. United States steel stocks suffered from liquidation and closed practically unchanged from Saturday's close.

CUP DEFENDER

Constitution Was Slipped Into the Water Last Night.

BUILT ON COLUMBIA LINES

Retains All the Strong Points With Trivial Defects Eliminated.

Bristol, R. I., May 6.—With her hull gaily decorated with flags and the deck well filled with sailors the yacht Constitution was christened this evening by Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, who broke the traditional bottle of wine on her glistening bow just as she started slowly down the ways into the sea.

The scene was a brilliant one as the Constitution was slowly lowered into the water, the cheering from the boats outside being loud and vigorous while the searchlight from the yacht Colonia just outside dock, illuminated the stern of the Constitution.

As the vessel reached the water the flash of the search-light grew more intense and greater became the display of rockets and Roman candles.

Twelve minutes after the yacht started the cradle was floated from under the bilges and the Constitution was fairly afloat. The interest in the launching aside from the first dip was in the lines of the Constitution. It was easily seen the Herreshoffs have turned out a craft that is exquisitely balanced and will be nervously responsible to the slightest touch of the helm. The spectators generally concluded the new cup defender is actually much improved over the Columbia with all her sterling virtues and none of her trifling faults.

The exact measurements of the Constitution have not been officially announced but the approximate dimensions are:

Length on the load water line, 90 feet; length over all, 138 feet; greatest beam, 25 feet; draught when on 90 feet line of flotation 20 feet; sail area, 14,500 square feet.

COAL TAX BILL PASSED.

Miners Find a Champion in an Aristocrat.

London, May 6.—The house of commons today adopted the coal tax by a vote of 333 to 227. Consequently the tax of a shilling a ton on export coal was adopted by a majority of 106. These figures, apparently do not represent the feeling of the members of the house, but the government made the issue strictly a party one, secured a record of attendance for this parliament, and by vigorous efforts polled within a score of a normal majority. The galleries were packed to overflowing.

Principal figures during the last day of the discussion were chiefly within the liberal ranks. Sir Edward Grey, H. H. Asquith, William Abraham, liberal; Charles Fenwick, all assailed the tax eloquently, the last two speaking with no little pathos and broad accent on behalf of the miners, in whose station of life they worked before coming to Westminster.

Perhaps the most interesting feature was the speech of Hon. Frederick Lambton, brother of the Earl of Dunham, who, standing amid conservative members, denounced the government as a "pack of riotous hounds after a ewe lamb," by which he referred to the coal industry. He declared the chancellor of the exchequer had represented the colliers as liars and forgers and maintained they were as honorable a set of men as ever sat on the government benches."

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach attempted to explain, but Lambton paid little heed. Sleepy people who had come in to hear the final stages of the debate blinked vigorously as they heard the right of miners to strike proclaimed by an aristocrat, who declared the miners were "as good as many men who had won the Victoria cross."

Another supporter of the government, John Wilson, bitterly objected to the tax, bringing up the question of American competition, contending that the duty would be to give the United State a chance to cut out British coal.

Balfour, in rambling style, summed up the debate. Judging from the speeches of the labor members during the last stages of the debate the miners' federation is quite likely to declare a general strike, thus precipitating a struggle between organized labor and parliament.

ELECTIONS IN INDIANA.

Villages and Towns Name Officers—Light Vote.

Indianapolis, May 6.—Elections were held in the villages and towns in Indiana today. The election generally was devoid of exciting interest. In most towns where elections were hotly contested local issues were at stake. A light vote was polled almost generally throughout the state. The republicans were successful in Newport, Pendletown, Morristown, Spiceland, Kirklin, and Sullivan while the democrats elected a majority of candidates in Haselton, Patoka, Dana, Roseville, Michigantown, North Judson, Monon, Jonesville, Elizabethtown, Hartsville, Hope, Roachdale, Liberty, Colfax and Jamestown. The citizens ticket was successful at English and Crothersville.

Cost of the War.

London, May 6.—The war office today officially gives out the total number of deaths in South African war at 714 officers and 14,264 men. Four officers and 814 men have been invalided home and subsequently died. Two thousand four hundred and ninety-three non-commissioned officers and men have left the service unfit for duty.

COPPER COMPANY IN COURT.

Boston & Montana Shows Some Big Profit.

Jersey City, May 6.—Vice Chancellor Pitney gave a hearing today in chancery chambers on a rule to show cause why the amalgamated copper company should not be enjoined from absorbing the Boston and Montana and Butte and Boston Mining companies of Montana. The petitioner alleges the valuation at which it is proposed to take in the companies named is excessive.

The answer of Henry H. Rogers, vice president of the amalgamated copper company admitted the purchase of the Boston and Montana company at $375 per share would involve an expenditure of $50,250,000 but denied that such expenditure would be excessive. The answer further sets forth that the market value of Boston and Montana stock is greater than $375, that the stock is now selling at $450 per share, that it is largely dealt in, particularly in Boston. February 20 a quarterly dividend of $1,500,000 was paid. The answer says the physical property and assets of the company, leaving out the good will and intangible assets, are worth at least $50,250,000.

The Butte and Montana company which is the successor to the Butte and Boston mining company, the answer says was organized when the Butte and Boston company went into the hands of a receiver in 1897. The properties of the latter company is now owned by the Butte and Montana company were bought for $2,000,000, but have enormously increased in value and are now worth $18,500,000. The stock is now worth $115 on par value of $100. The answer denies that $18,500,000 is an excessive price for company's property.

ANOTHER CANAL TREATY

Admits All Shipping, the United States Guaranteeing Neutrality.

Washington, May 6.—It is learned from an authoritative source that before Secretary Hay left for the west he had several conferences with Lord Pauncefote relative to the basis for another isthmian canal treaty and that an unofficial written memorandum was also submitted to Pauncefote on the subject. The ambassador has made known the general result of these conversations and of the memorandum to the authorities in London, and it is doubtless to this allusion was made in the London despatches. It is said, however, that negotiations are so tentative and informal that they are not regarded as an official exchange of propositions. What they embody is not made known here, though it is understood they are chiefly an exposition of the views held by the United States senators as to the essential features which should be included in the treaty.

It is also learned indirectly from senators who have been consulted that among the chief features in the negotiations are the neutralizing of the canal, the United States alone undertaking to guarantee neutrality and the admission of all shipping on an equal basis with the United states.

BROTHERHOOD OF TRAINMEN.

Fifth Biennial Convention Opens at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 6.—The fifth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, which convened here today, transacted business of a purely routine character at the first session. At the afternoon session the annual report of Grand Master Morrissey was read showing the order to be in a healthy condition numerically and financially. An open meeting was held tonight at which Mayor Rose welcomed the delegates to the city, Grand Master Morrissey responding. The others on the program included former Governor Peck, F. P. Sargeant, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen and E. E. Clark, grand master of the Order of Railway Conductors.

TWO JOKERS MEET DEATH

While Their Victim Escaped With Slight Injury.

Davenport, May 6.—Emil Mohr and Charles Reis, workmen at the Independent Maltin company's building sought to amuse themselves today by pretending to hang August Blunck. Placing a rope around his waist, they proceeded to hoist him by means of a pulley but the strain brought down a heavy tackle of timbers, instantly killing Mohr and Reis. Blunck was slightly injured.

CLOUD BURST IN IOWA.

Sends Water Five Feet Deep Down Streets of South Madison.

Burlington, Ia., May 6.—A cloud burst in Fort Madison Sunday sent the water coursing down the streets five feet deep. Mrs. Mary Carter, an aged woman, went down cellar to save the provisions when the walls caved in and she was drowned in the flood. Her husband attempted to rescue her and narrowly escaped.

The Eastman Trial.

Cambridge, May 6.—This was the thirteenth day of the Eastman murder trial and was spent by the defense in piling up additional evidence to support the contention that relations between defendant and the victim of the shooting, Grogan, were at all times pleasant.

The evidence showed that the families were at all times congenial; that the two men enjoyed many athletic sports together. But the sport which mostly took their fancy was shooting at a mark.

Mrs. Eastman, the wife of the defendant, took the stand just before the close of the afternoon session and had not finished her testimony when court adjourned.

German Kills a Russian.

Tien-Tsin, May 6.—Russian Lieutenant Telezovsky, from the gunboat Bobr, was shot dead by a German soldier during a fracas on Take road. The German fired in self-defense, Telezovsky having attacked him with a dirk.

THE ONLY IMPERIALISM

Known in America is Imperialism of a Sovereign People—McKinley at ElPaso.

El Paso, Texas, May 16.—American and Mexican flags were intertwined in decorations of the plaza where the official greeting of President McKinley and cabinet took place this morning. The presence on the stand of General Hernandez, personal representative of President Diaz and governor of the state of Chihuahua, gave international significance to the event. There were thousands of Mexicans in the vast concourse of people to whom the president spoke, and their enthusiasm was almost as wild as that of the Americans.

General Hernandez addressed the president on behalf of his president, extending the latter's congratulations and McKinley in response paid a high tribute to the president of the Mexican republic and charged his emissary to convey to his chief his warm regard and personal esteem with his best wishes for continued prosperity of our sister republic.

The president's speech was especially notable on account of his injunction to the people not to be alarmed about imperialism. There was, he said, no imperialism except the imperial power of the sovereign people of the United States.

The governor of Chihuahua also warmly welcomed the president to the border.

At noon the presidential party resumed its journey westward.

THE ONLY IMPERIALISM.

The president spoke in part as follows:

"I am glad to know this city believes in expansion. You have here, my fellow citizens, the true national spirit, the spirit of enterprise, development and progress, the building of the structure of liberty and free government on the broad and deep foundations of intelligence, virtue, morality and religion.

"This is the gate way to the Mexican republic and I want in this connection to express my great satisfaction with the cordial salutations tendered me by that great, distinguished president of our sister republic, President Diaz. I cannot go there, but they can come here. And we bid them welcome with open hearts.

"There never was such a unit in the United States as there is at this hour. There was never so much for a nation of 75,000,000 of people to be proud of as at this hour.

"We have sent our army and navy to distant seas and they have only added glory to our flag. They have brought no shame upon the American name. But it is not in the art of war we have to take our greatest pride. We are not a warlike people. We are not a military people. We never go to war unless we have to make peace. We want to exhaust every peaceable means for settlement before we go to war. And while we have authority to raise a hundred thousand troops the necessity does not exist for that number and we do not propose to raise but 75,000. So don't be alarmed about militarism or imperialism. We know no imperialism in the United States except the imperialism of the sovereign people."

IN NEW MEXICO.

Tucson, N. M., May 6—Shortly after leaving El Paso the train crossed the line into New Mexico and ran through a grazing section of territory. It was a hot and dusty ride. The first stop in the territory was made at Deming, where the president was welcomed by Governor Otero and his staff. There was a big crowd at the station and the president was given a warm greeting.

The presidential special is due at Phoenix in the morning.

CLEVELAND BANK CLOSES.

Directors Hope That All Depositors Will Be Paid.

Cleveland, O., May 6.—The doors of the Cuyahoga Savings and Banking company were not opened for business today. The following notice was pasted on the window: "On account of continued absence of R. N. Pollock, president, the directors concluded to suspend payment until such time as they make an examination of affairs. It is confidently expected every depositor will be paid in full."

Hundreds of depositors, mostly working people, are clamoring for their money. The last statement published by the bank indicated individual deposit amounted to $209,175; loans on real estate, discounts, etc., $308,868.

President Pollock left the city ten days ago ostensibly for New York. Since that time nothing has been heard from him. The American Trust company has been made receiver for the bank. Walter D. Sayle has been appointed receiver for the United States Carbon company, which is involved in the bank suspension. Immediate cause leading to closing the bank was a demand made by one of the largest depositors Saturday to withdraw $22,000. The money was not forthcoming. Fearing a run when this should become known a meeting of directors decided to close the doors.

AUTHOR OF BREAD WINNERS.

Said to Be Miss Ida Harris Who Recently Died at Champaign.

Chicago, May 6—The Tribune tomorrow will claim it to be an established fact that the author of "The Bread Winners," a sensational novel published anonymously in 1883, was Miss Ida Harris of Champaign, Illinois, daughter of B. F. Harris, president of the First National bank at that place, who died a few days ago. At the time the book was published many reviewers asserted John Hay wrote the book. Some attributed it to W. D. Howells, and to half a dozen other well known novelists. It is claimed when her will is opened the executor will make an official announcement of the fact that Miss Harris wrote the book.

Gallup is Treasurer.

Chicago, Ill., May 6.—D. L. Gallup, treasurer of the Santa Fe railroad in Chicago, has been elected comptroller of the system.

Kelly is Short.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 6.—Rosie Kelly, clerk and treasurer of Liberty, Ind., has disappeared and a shortage has been found in his accounts.

GEO. SNYDER DEAD

He Was a Local Character Known to Every One by Sight.

MENDED UMBRELLAS BY DAY

And Frequented Library at Night, Reading Good Books and Papers.

Frank Ripple of this city, received a letter yesterday from the sheriff at Magnolia, Miss., asking for information in reference to an old man named George Snyder who had been found dead in that city. It appeared that Snyder had a letter in his pocket from Ripple and the Magnolia authorities at once wrote to him for information.

Snyder was quite well known in this city, being the old German umbrella peddler who had made his home in this city for a number of years. Last November he left for the south, and before going he borrowed some money from Ripple, who is also a German, and left some property in his possession as security. The old man did not return the money as soon as expected and Ripple had written to him about it. That was the letter found in the possession of the dead man. It was thought that Snyder had a sister in this city, but it is said that she moved to Chicago some time ago. A letter was sent to William Herman, the tailor, who is in Chicago and who is thought to know the whereabouts of the sister.

Snyder was a low heavy set man, usually wearing a heavy black moustache and was a familiar character to the citizens of this city. While he made his home in this city he lived in a small shanty at the rear of the Smock boarding house on East Main street.

Many patrons of the library will remember Snyder. He was a regular visitor to the rooms, going there early in the evening and remaining until the hour for closing. He also selected good reading matter and put in his time gathering information that would be of value to him.

Mr. Ripple will inform the Magnolia authorities of what he knows about Snyder, but will make no effort to bring the body to this city. He is not a relative of the man, and in fact, did not know him intimately.

The report speaks well of the members of the force. The discipline has been good. One man was suspended but was afterward reinstated. Attention is called to the fugitives wanted in other cities and arrested here, being 23 in number. The rogues' gallery contains 1630 criminals with descriptions and measurements. Six criminals captured in other cities and whose identity was desired were identified through the local gallery. The chief recommended that the city retain membership in the National Bureau of Identification.

Succeeds Williamson.

John W. Williamson, who has been appointed to a position as patrolman on the city force will be succeeded as night watchman by Ellsworth Maney. The route patrolled by Williamson was a good one, and when he surrendered it, he was careful to select a man in whom he had absolute confidence and well know to be trustworthy. Maney is a young colored man of good habits, sober and industrious. He begins his work tonight and for a week Williamson will go over the beat with him, giving him all of the pointers possible on the work.

First Excursion.

The I. D. & W. will run its first excursion to the season Sunday making a rate of $1 to Indianapolis and return.

The Deaconness Work.

At the regular meeting of the Luther League of the English Lutheran church Monday night Rev. H. Peters made an address on the "Deaconess Work of the Church." The deaconess office is of very early origin, even from apostolic times. Mr. Peters traced the history of the office through the ancient church to modern times. It was revived in 1836 by Rev. Fliedner, a Lutheran minister at Kaiserswerth, Germany, and he founded there the first mother house. The first effort to found a mother house in this country was made by Dr. Passavant in 1849 at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. There are now four mother houses, the largest and most imposing of which is the Mary Jane Drexel Home at Philadelphia. It is located opposite Girard college and is the finest building of the kind in the world, costing over $500,000. It was erected by John D. Lankenau in memory of his wife. There is one in Milwaukee which was founded by Dr. Passavant, and others in Baltimore and Omaha. The latter is a Scandinavian institution.

Two fundamental qualifications are required of the candidates, a christian character and a strong physical constitution. The candidate must be single or widowed and between the ages of eighteen and forty. There are three kinds of deaconesses, nursing, teaching and parochial. The names of the first two are self explanatory and the last are employed in large parishes to assist the pastor in visiting the sick and other parochial work. They take no vows and while they dress plainly there is no obligation to wear a uniform.

Bartenders Organize.

At a meeting of the bar tenders of the city, held Sunday afternoon, a union was formed. About 12 charter members were taken in and it is expected that a number of others will come in at a meeting to be held next Sunday afternoon. Most of the bar tenders of the city seem to favor the union and it is believed that they will all be members within a short time. The following officers were elected:

President—Walter Moore.

Vice President—Eugene Brown.

Secretary—Elmer Reavis.

Treasurer—Will Foster.

Exciting Runaway.

One of the teams from the Hines livery barn ran away yesterday afternoon on East Main street doing some damage to the rig but not injuring any one. The team dashed down East Main street and when at the corner of Broadway and Main one of the horses fell. That threw the other animal and both rolled on the pavement with the wagon on top of them. The horses were finally helped to their feet and neither of them was seriously scratched.

Hose Wagon Repairs.

The hose wagon from the West Main street is being overhauled and reconstructed. The work is being done by the men at the house under the direction of Roy Fowler, a member of the crew who is a wagon builder. The wagon is being strengthened by the addition of braces and will be much improved after being painted and varnished.

Go to Blue Mound.

About 160 of the members of the K. of P. lodges from over the county will go to Blue Mound Wednesday evening of this week to institute a new lodge of the order. A majority of the crowd will be from the three lodges of this city. They have chartered a special train to take the crowd down and make the return trip.

He was unconscious when picked up but soon came to himself and the physician who was called could not find any evidence of a serious injury.

Hit With a Brick.

David Cooper, son of A. A. Cooper, the dairyman west of the city, met with an accident while playing in the school yard Monday afternoon. He was accidentally struck on the head with a brickbat and his scalp cut for about an inch. The wound bled rather freely and the teacher was alarmed and summoned a surgeon who dressed the injury.

Bitten By Dog.

Dode Denham, living west of the city, was bitten by a dog Sunday morning and sustained some painful wounds on his left hand. The animal also attempted to bite Mr. Denham's leg but he was protected by his clothing. The wounds were dressed and the dog was killed.

MAY TERM SUITS

Wabash Sued For Damages on Account of the Death of John McGonigle.

FREIGHT AND DRAYAGE BILL

H. L. Stookey Wants a Deed Conveying Land to His Children Set Aside—Plea For Divorce.

One familiar with the work of the courts could have told yesterday by a glance at the execution docket that the last day of service for the May term of court was drawing near if he had no other knowledge of the date. That was because of the number of new suits filed. The attorneys usually wait until the last moment before filing their papers and this term is no exception to the rule. Today is the last for service for suits that may be entitled to a hearing the May term.

Among the causes instituted yesterday was one in behalf of the administrator of the estate of John McGonigle naming the Wabash railroad company as defendant. The deceased was a brakeman in the employ of the Wabash and was killed at the siding known as Knights, just south of Decatur. The accident occurred after night and no one saw it. The train on which McGonigle was working north bound went in on the side track and there waited for two other trains to pass, going south. When McGonigle failed to give the signal that he had opened the switch for his train to proceed, an investigation was made and he was found lying beside the track with his skull crushed. Evidently he had been struck by one of the south bound trains. This suit is for $5000. No bill of particulars has been filed and it is not known on just what grounds the complainants will base their claim.

THE COURT HOUSE ROOF.

The slate now on the court house roof is the indirect cause of much lawing. The late George Dewitt had the contract for roofing the building and about the time the slate arrived he became ill. Andrew Miller, the owner of a dray line, hauled the slate from the station to the court house and paid the freight before receiving the goods. His bill for freight and drayage was about $150. Contractor Dewitt died and Miller took possession of the slate to make himself whole. J. M. Dewitt was the administrator, and he wanted Miller to surrender the goods and probate his claim in court. Miller knew that the estate would not pay the claims in full and refused. There was a contest in court and Judge Hammer ruled that Miller should submit his claim and take his chances with the others. Miller refused and was cited to appear and answer contempt proceedings. Declining still to surrender the goods, Miller was held to be in contempt but appealed from that decision. Then the administrator replevined the slate. The contract was re-let and the slate put on the court house. In the meantime James Dewitt, the administrator, had died, and John F. Mattes was appointed to administer the estate and when the replevin suit came up for a hearing Judge Shonkweiler ruled that that phase of the dispute could not be heard until the appeal on the contempt proceedings was heard.

The appeal in the contempt case was disregarded by Miller and he began action to recover on the replevin bond, that suit being filed Wednesday. The appellant having neglected to perfect the appeal, the other side took up that matter and the appeal case was likewise entered on the dockets yesterday.

WANTS DEED ANNULLED.

Harvey L. Stookey filed a bill in chancery Thursday asking that a certain deed be set aside, and he be given full title to a certain tract of land. In 1898 Stookey deeded to his children a tract of 24 acres of land near the Cowford bridge, but stipulated that the land was not to be sold or in any way encumbered until after his youngest son should attain the age of 25 years. That son was then 11 years old. In October, 1900, the children to whom this land was deeded transferred it to W. W. Conard, but their deed had in it a provision by which the title should not vest in Conard until Frank Stookey was 25 years old. The complainant said that a short time before he deeded the property to his children he was cruelly assaulted by his oldest son, Charles Stookey, and that as a result of that beating was not capable of understanding what he did when he signed the papers. For this reason and for the further reason that the express provision of the deed has been violated by an attempt to sell the land, he wanted the deed set aside and the title once more vested in him.

A DIVORCE.

Elizabeth May Whitehurst asks for a divorce from her husband, Reginald Whitehurst, whom she charges with drunkenness and failure to support. She asks that the court annul the dower interest her husband may have in her property and that she be given the custody of their child.

ASSUMPSIT SUIT.

J. J. Finn brings suit in assumpsit against E. N. Deffenbaugh asking damages in the sum of $300.

A Hedge Fire.

The fire department was called out to the vicinity of the old powder magazines on East Wood street by a fire in the hedge. Some man had been trimming the hedge and had set fire to the brush. There was no particular danger, and the flames were extinguished.

There are three habits that no amount of treatment will ever cure a woman of when she once gets them: The garret habit, the twin habit and the bare neck photograph habit.

RATTLING OF THE CASTINGS

Caused An Exciting Runaway on East Main Street.

The horse owned by the Williams Manufacturing company, furnished an exciting runaway down East Main street yesterday about 11:30 o'clock. The driver had some castings in the buggy and when near the Herald office on East Main street, he whipped the horse. The animal seemed to have more spirit than he was given credit for and started along at a merry pace. The sound of the rattle of the iron castings in the rear of the buggy evidently frightened the horse for it broke into a run and dashed east on Main street at a breakneck pace.

The driver made no attempt to get out of the buggy, but remained on the seat attempting to check the horse which all the time was increasing its speed. At the corner of Broadway and Main street there stands a large iron casting weighing several hundred pounds, once used in the old Clark oil mill. The buggy struck that obstruction and shattered one of the wheels. The horse was unable to turn either to the north or the south and as the Vandalia freight house blocks the foot of Main street a collision was certain. The horse went straight ahead until too late to turn and then seeing the opening about five feet wide between the office of the coal company and the freight house the beast made straight for that and hit it with true aim. But the aperture was not large enough to admit the buggy and there came a crash that played havoc with the wagon and brought the horse to a standstill.

Lee Michl had ridden down to the coal office to see J. W. Carter and had left his wheel standing in the unused opening between the office and the freight house, right in the track chosen by the runaway. He heard the crash and going outside saw the horse dancing on the hind wheel and frame of his $125 bike. The driver picked up the castings which had fallen out and started to drive back to the shop with the runaway horse and his dilapidated wagon. He had escaped without a scratch, but was a nervous lad after the run was over.

Mr. Michl was assured by Mr. Williams that they would make the bicycle good.

MISFORTUNE OF WAR.

Americans in the Bush Fire On Each Other.

R. A. Naylor, night clerk at the R. R. Y. M. C. A. has received a letter from his brother, John B. Naylor, who is a member of Co. C, Fortieth U. S. V., Infantry which is stationed near Manila doing garrison duty. The letter bears the date of February 11. Naylor takes the life of a soldier easy and with all its hardships he rather likes it and says he is making some money in the east. He was a barber by trade, and in the garrison he has set up a little shop where when off duty he plys his trade and states that last month he was able to lay away $150.

He tells of an experience that is frequent in the bush fighting. A few days before writing a detail from Company C, came unexpectedly on a detail of men from Company J and were fired on with disastrous results. Corporal Kelley of the Company C detail was killed outright and several men wounded, none seriously. However. The same day the same detachment ran into an insurgent trap with the result that half a dozen Americans were wounded, but none seriously. The most seriously wounded was a private named Knights from DuQuoin, Ill.

At the date of writing, Naylor was of the opinion that they would break camp within three weeks or such a matter, and would go to Manila and that they would be ready to sail for home by June 1. Naylor enclosed a list of the killed and wounded of Company C since Feb. 20 1900. The killed numbered nine and the wounded, twelve.

Justice Courts.

William Ailes alias John Rogan, was arrested on a state warrant sworn out by W. P. Winsey, charging him with stealing a lot of the chattels of the affiant. The defendant was arraigned before Justice Provost and on waiving examination was placed under bonds of $100 to await the action of the grand jury. He could not furnish bond and went to jail.

S. M. Argo was fined $4.80 for disorderly conduct.

Frank Ryan and Wm. Murray each pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy and were given an hour to leave the city.

Mrs. Annie Owens appeared before Justice of the Peace Hane yesterday and swore out a state warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Della McGlasson charging her with assault. The defendant was arrested by Constable Miller and brought into court where she pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $3 and costs.

Sweeny Strictly in It.

Engineer Jerry Sweeny of the Wabash has just purchased a driving rig that will compare favorably with anything in the city. Mr. Sweeny is a lover of a good horse and took a fancy to Prince, the fine sorrel driving horse owned by Dr. C. C. Mills and yesterday he closed a deal for the animal paying in the neighborhood of $250 for the horse. Prince is a beautiful red sorrel with a disposition as kind as a dog.

After buying the horse Mr. Sweeny went and purchased a fine Stanhope and new harness and when he comes out with the rig his friends will have cause to be envious.

Jacksonville Man Drops Dead.

At Jacksonville Wednesday, while walking toward a carriage which was to convey him home, H. W. Tankersley dropped dead on the street. Heart failure is assigned at the reason of his sudden demise. Tankersley was a veteran soldier, 53 years old. He was a single man.

Wanted at Spencer & Lehman's, corner of Wood and Main streets, Decatur, Ill. a visit from all who are thinking of purchasing a fine or medium grade buggy, surrey, phaeton or road wagon. New stock of excellent goods just received at low prices. Old goods at cost.

WAS MILD HOP ALE

Phillips, the Macon Restaurateur, Acquitted of Charge of Illegally Selling Liquor.

LEFORGEE WILL DEFEND HIM

Bert Black, Who Did a Hold Up In Decatur Several Months Ago, is Fined $100 and Costs.

In the county court Thursday a jury heard the case of the people vs. Robert Phillips, who was charged with selling liquor without a license. The jurors called to hear the case were G. W. Stoy, W. H. Hunter, W. S. Richardson, James Hollinger, W. B. Newell, S. R. Ghor, L. S. Hall, J. C. Kewn, G. D. Hyer, J. S. Tait, Charles Sutter and David Hooks.

Phillips is a restaurant man at Macon and it is charged that he sold liquor. The evidence developed that he sold stuff called "Nutrose" and there was no attempt to deny that. The dispute was about the qualities of the drink. Phillips insisted that it was not intoxicating. The label said that it was "a mild hop ale." Of course the witnesses were the ones who drank it and could tell of its effects. One man said that he drank six or seven quarts of the stuff and it downed him. There was an effort on the part of the defense to show that this witness was drunk before he drank "Nutrose." That he had whisky at his home and drank there. The witness denied that. Other witnesses said that they drank several bottles of the "Nutrose" and that they believed that it was not intoxicating. The jury evidently thought as much for after about an hour's consideration they returned a verdict of not guilty.

APPOINTED TO DEFEND.

Thursday Jimmy Dennison, aged 11 years, was taken into the county court to be arraigned on a charge of petty larceny. He had stolen $2.50 from his father and was ready to plead guilty to the charge. Attorney C. C. Leforgee happened to be in court on other business and while waiting for an opportunity to dispose of it got into a conversation with the boy and advised him to enter a plea of not guilty. Attorney Leforgee called the attention of the court to the fact that the boy was about to plead guilty without anyone to offer him aid. The court said he had no intention of accepting such a plea from a child and told the attorney he should defend the boy.

Attorney Leforgee said that he had no interest in the case except that he thought it was wrong to send the boy to the reformatory. He had no idea of acquitting the boy with the intention of returning him to his father. In fact, he said, he wished to prevent that. His idea is that the boy should be sent to the industrial school at Glenwood where he will be less apt to mix with a crowd of boys who are criminally inclined. It is his purpose not only to keep the boy out of Pontiac but to have him sent to Glenwood.

PAID HIS FINE.

Judge Shonkweiler sentenced Bert Black to pay a fine of $100 on a plea of guilty to the charge of robbery. A relative of the prisoner was present and paid the fine and costs which amounted to $125.

On a Sunday several months ago a young man from the neighborhood of Lovington came to Decatur where he was to wait several hours for a train to take him to Indiana. On the levee he fell in with a colored man who knew where drinks could be had. In getting the drinks the pair fell in with Black and they wandered about the city until after dark. Then, according to the story of the victim, they went to the neighborhood of the slaughter houses on South Main street. There Black and the negro beat and robbed their victim and threw him into a ditch. The negro was never apprehended and Black has been in jail since that time awaiting trial. The prosecuting witness has disappeared and that accounts for Black escaping with a fine instead of imprisonment.

Bert Black petty larceny. Defendant arraigned and pleads guilty. Fined $100 and costs and ordered committed until fine and costs are paid. The value of the property taken was $9.

Robert Phillips; selling liquor without license. Motion to quash allowed as to sixth and seventh counts. Overruled as to others. Defendant arraigned and pleads not guilty. Trial by jury.

HARRISON'S HUMOR.

The Ex-President is a Man Who Can See a Joke.

At the recent social functions given at Washington in honor of ex-President Harrison the genial side of his nature has been well brought out. His frequent mirthful sallies prompted a member of his cabinet to say that while in the white house Gen. Harrison was by no means the austere man which many of his countrymen supposed. And then the ex-secretary told, by way of illustration, what happened at one cabinet meeting. Jerry Rusk was a member of the cabinet. The office of secretary of agriculture had been evolved from that of commissioner late in the first Cleveland administration. The report of the secretary of agriculture was a new thing to the country. Uncle Jerry had laid himself out with a most elaborate review of what the department of agriculture had done for the country for the last year. As usual, the report was the subject of cabinet consideration previous to publication. The other members had smiled somewhat at the enthusiasm with which the secretary of agriculture set forth the achievements of his new department. It was while this impression was fresh on the mind of the secretary that the president surprised his advisers by bringing out the draft of his Thanksgiving proclamation and reading it aloud. Usually such formalities are not matters of cabinet consideration. The president read the document from beginning to end. Then with much gravity he explained that he was somewhat in doubt as to whether he ought not to call upon the American people to return thanks to Secretary Rusk as well as to the Almighty.

Home of Naval Secrets.

One of the most exclusive laboratories under the British admiralty is situated at Haslar, near Portsmouth, and is used mainly for secret experiments and models, says a London correspondent. No strangers can enter the gates without giving a clear statement as to his object. Even the prime minister would not be allowed to enter unless armed with an order signed by the first lord of the admiralty. A casual visitor lucky enough to be admitted must leave his camera at the gates, and on the first attempt to take notes he is conducted beyond the pale.

Organ-Grinders Strike Snag.

Organ-grinders have struck a snag in Boston. In that city there is an ordinance which gives the right to any citizen to object to an organ-grinder playing his instrument within three hundred feet of the objector's residence. If the musician fails to move on, the police are required to enforce the law.

Nerves Need Fuel

To feed the vital fires or they lose the power to regulate and control the body. Unnatural stimulants won't do. Like an air blast on dying embers they cause a sudden flash of heat—then all is dead. Give the nerves plenty of fuel, and the worry and fretting, the headaches, the nervousness, loss of sleep, deranged digestion, neuralgia, rheumatism and heart troubles, that burn up the brain substance and destroy the nerve-force, will disappear forever. Don't wait till the fires are burned out. Begin now.

"I was so nervous and restless that I could get little sleep, and the headaches were something dreadful. Pains would start in the temples and travel down the chords at the back of my neck to chest and arms. Doctors gave no relief, but Dr. Miles' Nervine cured me."

MRS. A. H. WIEMAN, German Valley, Ills.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

creates a good appetite, stimulates digestion, quiets nervous irritation, gives refreshing sleep and sends plenty of fresh blood to the furnaces of the brain and nerves.

HOPE IN MR. EDISON.

Automobile Business Dependent on New Invention of His.

Electrician Said to Be at Work on Storage Battery That Will Revolutionize the Electric Automobile Business.

Thomas A. Edison, who is on his way from Florida, is at work upon an invention which, if successful, will revolutionize the electric automobile business. Manufacturers of these machines say that such an invention will be as important and as profitable as the invention of the telephone. Mr. Edison some time ago realized this, and for months has been at work on the invention.

Briefly stated his idea is to construct a storage battery which will not have the excessive weight of the storage battery now in use on electric machines, and which will not be out of proportion to the load carried. So expensive is the present electric automobile that the business of constructing them is about to be abandoned in Chicago and New England. It has been estimated that between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 are invested in the automobile business, and that a large proportion of this immense sum has been put in machines of the electric type.

It is understood that Mr. Edison has ordered two automobiles of this kind with the storage batteries left out. He will put in batteries of his own construction. These, it is said, he has recently invented, and he will make a long automobile tour to test them.

"Where Mr. Edison bought these two machines is not of much importance," said an officer of the automobile company. "The new storage battery is the important thing. A great many electric vehicles are made, and any one of them would be benefited by a storage battery such as Mr. Edison hopes to show. Without some invention like that the electric business will be done for in Chicago and Boston, which means that New England manufacturers will have to shut down because the storage batteries now in use are too expensive and insufficient for the purpose intended.

"While machines run by steam or gasoline have moderate weight in proportion to the load carried it is different with the electric machine, whose excessive weight is out of all proportion to the load carried. Mr Edison's idea, I believe, is to construct a battery much smaller—say the size of a soap box—and yet so much more powerful as to do the work better than it is done by the storage battery now in use."

RINDERPEST IN PHILIPPINES.

Precautions Taken to Prevent Spread of This Fatal Cattle Disease to Other Island Possessions.

On account of the reported existence of rinderpest in the Philippine islands, Secretary Wilson some time ago recommended to the secretary of war that such action be taken as might be necessary to prevent the introduction of the contagion into the Hawaiian islands and the United States by animals brought on government transports. He also requested the secretary of the treasury to direct that special precautions be taken on the Pacific coast to prevent the landing of susceptible animals without their being turned over to the department of agriculture for quarantine under the supervision of the bureau of animal industry. Secretary Wilson has received replies from Secretary Root and Secretary Gage, informing him that the desired instructions have been issued.

Rinderpest is the great cattle plague of oriental countries, which has frequently swept over Europe destroying nearly all bovine animals, and has attracted special attention during the past two or three years by its ravages in Africa, where in many sections it destroyed from 90 to 98 per cent. of all the cattle.

Although inoculation at last has been so far efficacious as somewhat to reduce the losses from this disease, it still remains one of the most fatal diseases to cattle.

The freight train was being switched to a side track when the collision occurred. A sharp curve prevented the engineer of a passenger train from seeing the other engine until within 200 feet of the switch. It was then too late to prevent a crash. The accident occurred at the foot of a sharp incline where the train was running at a high rate of speed in order to reach the top of the hill on the opposite side of the ravine, and the crash was terrific. The freight engine was thrown across the track. The passenger engine was buried on a 20 foot embankment followed by the baggage car, express, day coach and three chair cars. Engineer Brown was buried underneath his engine and his remains were not recovered at a late hour. The crew of the freight saved themselves by jumping. A special train carrying surgeons and nurses from Ottumwa was soon on the scene and the injured were removed to the hospital at Creston.

As soon as he reached the surface he began with others to dig for his comrades. The first reached was Gilbert DeVoe who will recover, although he was under the snow 16 hours and is badly cut and bruised. The others were dead when the rescuing party reached their bodies.

SULTAN SHOOTS PHYSICIAN

Who Unwittingly Caused His Nobs Pain.

London, May 7.—"It is rumored," says the Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Express, "that the Sultan shot dead a physician who, while attending him for ear complaint and massaging him unwittingly caused his majesty intense pain. The chamberlain rushed into the room, and the sultan, who supposed there was an attempt upon his life, fired again, wounding the chamberlain."

STOCKS STILL BOOM.

Big Advance Monday Especially in Northern Pacifics.

New York, May 6—The interrupted speculative advance was renewed today with great violence, the speculative holders of stock apparently having been entirely reassured by a check to the reaction achieved Saturday.

The opening sales were at the extreme advances from 1 to 4¼ points and at prices in some instances, varying as much as two points on simultaneous sales. Grangers, Pacifics, trunk lines and southwesterns proved to be most active stocks. There was a continued dearth of news to account for the strength of the market in general or Northern Pacific in particular. Consolidation continued to be a magic word to influence trading. Northern Pacific made an extreme advance of 23 points with no very important reaction on the way up. A long string of 1000 to 5000 shares and blocks were recorded, but successive prices though changed did not recede ⅜ points after the opening, when a second sale was made at a jump of 2 cents over the first sale, with four points over Saturday. The movement in Canadian Pacific was apparently sympathetic and reached an extreme 13¼. Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic common and preferred stocks rose about five points each, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie 2¾ and preferred six, following Canadian Pacific.

Aside from these there were few stocks which exceeded the opening price, among them Atchison, which rose an extreme of 6⅜ points, and a number of less prominent stocks. Pittsburg, C. C. C. & St. L. rose 8½, Minneapolis and St. Louis 7, and the coalers generally from 1¼ to 5 points. None of these gains were fully maintained. In fact profit taking was in steady progress all day, under cover of strength in individual stocks. United States steel stocks suffered from liquidation and closed practically unchanged from Saturday's close.

CUP DEFENDER

Constitution Was Slipped Into the Water Last Night.

BUILT ON COLUMBIA LINES

Retains All the Strong Points With Trivial Defects Eliminated.

Bristol, R. I., May 6.—With her hull gaily decorated with flags and the deck well filled with sailors the yacht Constitution was christened this evening by Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, who broke the traditional bottle of wine on her glistening bow just as she started slowly down the ways into the sea.

The scene was a brilliant one as the Constitution was slowly lowered into the water, the cheering from the boats outside being loud and vigorous while the search-light from the yacht Colonia just outside dock, illuminated the stern of the Constitution.

As the vessel reached the water the flash of the search-light grew more intense and greater became the display of rockets and Roman candles.

Twelve minutes after the yacht started the cradle was floated from under the bilges and the Constitution was fairly afloat. The interest in the launching aside from the first dip was in the lines of the Constitution. It was easily seen the Herreshoffs have turned out a craft that is exquisitely balanced and will be nervously responsible to the slightest touch of the helm. The spectators generally concluded the new cup defender is actually much improved over the Columbia with all her sterling virtues and none of her trifling faults.

The exact measurements of the Constitution have not been officially announced but the approximate dimensions are:

Length on the load water line, 90 feet; length over all, 139 feet; greatest beam, 25 feet; draught when on 90 feet line of flotation 20 feet; sail area, 14,500 square feet.

COAL TAX BILL PASSED.

Miners Find a Champion in an Aristocrat.

London, May 6.—The house of commons today adopted the coal tax by a vote of 333 to 227. Consequently the tax of a shilling a ton on export coal was adopted by a majority of 106. These figures, apparently do not represent the feeling of the members of the house, but the government made the issue strictly a party one, secured a record of attendance for this parliament, and by vigorous efforts polled within a score of a normal majority. The galleries were packed to overflowing.

Principal figures during the last day of the discussion were chiefly within the liberal ranks. Sir Edward Grey, H. H. Asquith, William Abraham, liberal; Charles Fenwick, all assailed the tax eloquently, the last two speaking with no little pathos and broad accent on behalf of the miners, in whose station of life they worked before coming to Westminster.

Perhaps the most interesting feature was the speech of Hon. Frederick Lambton, brother of the Earl of Durham, who, standing amid conservative members, denounced the government as a "pack of riotous hounds after a ewe lamb," by which he referred to the coal industry. He declared the chancellor of the exchequer had represented the colliers as liars and forgers and maintained they were as honorable a set of men as ever sat on the government benches."

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach attempted to explain, but Lambton paid little heed. Sleepy people who had come in to hear the final stages of the debate blinked vigorously as they heard the right of miners to strike proclaimed by an aristocrat, who declared the miners were "as good as many men who had won the Victoria cross."

Another supporter of the government, John Wilson, bitterly objected to the tax, bringing up the question of American competition, contending that the duty would be to give the United State a chance to cut out British coal.

Balfour, in rambling style, summed up the debate. Judging from the speeches of the labor members during the last stages of the debate the miners' federation is quite likely to declare a general strike, thus precipitating a struggle between organized labor and parliament.

ELECTIONS IN INDIANA.

Villages and Towns Name Officers—Light Vote.

Indianapolis, May 6.—Elections were held in the villages and towns in Indiana today. The election generally was devoid of exciting interest. In most towns where elections were hotly contested local issues were at stake. A light vote was polled almost generally throughout the state. The republicans were successful in Newport, Pendletown, Morristown, Spiceland, Kirklin, and Sullivan while the democrats elected a majority of candidates in Hazelton, Patoka, Dana, Roseville, Michigantown, North Judson, Monon, Jonesville, Elizabethtown, Hartsville, Hope, Roachdale, Liberty, Colfax and Jamestown. The citizens ticket was successful at English and Crothersville.

Cost of the War.

London, May 6.—The war office today officially gives out the total number of deaths in South African war at 714 officers and 14,264 men. Four officers and 314 men have been invalided home and subsequently died. Two thousand four hundred and ninety-three non-commissioned officers and men have left the service unfit for duty.

COPPER COMPANY IN COURT.

Boston & Montana Shows Some Big Profit.

Jersey City, May 6.—Vice Chancellor Pitney gave a hearing today in chancery chambers on a rule to show cause why the amalgamated copper company should not be enjoined from absorbing the Boston and Montana and Butte and Boston Mining companies of Montana. The petitioner alleges the valuation at which it is proposed to take in the companies named is excessive.

The answer of Henry H. Rogers, vice president of the amalgamated copper company admitted the purchase of the Boston and Montana company at $375 per share would involve an expenditure of $50,250,000 but denied that such expenditure would be excessive. The answer further sets forth that the market value of Boston and Montana stock is greater than $375, that the stock is now selling at $450 per share, that it is largely dealt in, particularly in Boston. February 20 a quarterly dividend of $1,500,000 was paid. The answer says the physical property and assets of the company, leaving out the good will and intangible assets, are worth at least $50,250,000.

The Butte and Montana company which is the successor to the Butte and Boston mining company, the answer says was organised when the Butte and Boston company went into the hands of a receiver in 1897. The properties of the latter company is now owned by the Butte and Montana company were bought for $2,000,000, but have enormously increased in value and are now worth $18,500,000. The stock is now worth $115 on par value of $100. The answer denies that $18,500,000 is an excessive price for company's property.

ANOTHER CANAL TREATY

Admits All Shipping, the United States Guaranteeing Neutrality.

Washington, May 6.—It is learned from an authoritative source that before Secretary Hay left for the west he had several conferences with Lord Pauncefote relative to the basis for another isthmian canal treaty and that an unofficial written memorandum was also submitted to Pauncefote on the subject. The ambassador has made known the general result of these conversations and of the memorandum to the authorities in London, and it is doubtless to this allusion was made in the London despatches. It is said, however, that negotiations are so tentative and informal that they are not regarded as an official exchange of propositions. What they embody is not made known here, though it is understood they are chiefly an exposition of the views held by the United States senators as to the essential features which should be included in the treaty.

It is also learned indirectly from senators who have been consulted that among the chief features in the negotiations are the neutralizing of the canal, the United States alone undertaking to guarantee neutrality and the admission of all shipping on an equal basis with the United States.

BROTHERHOOD OF TRAINMEN.

Fifth Biennial Convention Opens at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 6.—The fifth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, which convened here today, transacted business of a purely routine character at the first session. At the afternoon session the annual report of Grand Master Morrissey was read showing the order to be in a healthy condition numerically and financially. An open meeting was held tonight at which Mayor Rose welcomed the delegates to the city, Grand Master Morrissey responding. The others on the program included former Governor Peck, F. P. Sargeant, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen and E. E. Clark, grand master of the Order of Railway Conductors.

Placing a rope around his waist, they proceeded to hoist him by means of a pulley but the strain brought down a heavy tackle of timbers, instantly killing Mohr and Reis. Blunck was slightly injured.

CLOUD BURST IN IOWA.

Sends Water Five Feet Deep Down Streets of South Madison.

Burlington, Ia., May 6.—A cloud burst in Fort Madison Sunday sent the water coursing down the streets five feet deep. Mrs. Mary Carter, an aged woman, went down cellar to save the provisions when the walls caved in and she was drowned in the flood. Her husband attempted to rescue her and narrowly escaped.

The Eastman Trial.

Cambridge, May 6.—This was the thirteenth day of the Eastman murder trial and was spent by the defense in piling up additional evidence to support the contention that relations between defendant and the victim of the shooting, Grogan, were at all times pleasant.

The evidence showed that the families were at all times congenial; that the two men enjoyed many athletic sports together. But the sport which mostly took their fancy was shooting at a mark.

Mrs. Eastman, the wife of the defendant, took the stand just before the close of the afternoon session and had not finished her testimony when court adjourned.

German Kills a Russian.

Tien-Tsin, May 6.—Russian Lieutenant Telesovsky, from the gunboat Bobr, was shot dead by a German soldier during a fracas on Take road. The German fired in self-defense, Telekovsky having attacked him with a dirk.

THE ONLY IMPERIALISM

Known in America is Imperialism of a Sovereign People—McKinley at El Paso.

El Paso, Texas, May 16.—American and Mexican flags were intertwined in decorations of the plaza where the official greeting of President McKinley and cabinet took place this morning. The presence on the stand of General Hernandez, personal representative of President Diaz and governor of the state of Chihuahua, gave international significance to the event. There were thousands of Mexicans in the vast concourse of people to whom the president spoke, and their enthusiasm was almost as wild as that of the Americans.

General Hernandez addressed the president on behalf of his president, extending the latter's congratulations and McKinley in response paid a high tribute to the president of the Mexican republic and charged his emissary to convey to his chief his warm regard and personal esteem with his best wishes for continued prosperity of our sister republic.

The president's speech was especially notable on account of his injunction to the people not to be alarmed about imperialism. There was, he said, no imperialism except the imperial power of the sovereign people of the United States.

The governor of Chihuahua also warmly welcomed the president to the border.

At noon the presidential party resumed its journey westward.

THE ONLY IMPERIALISM.

The president spoke in part as follows:

"I am glad to know this city believes in expansion. You have here, my fellow citizens, the true national spirit, the spirit of enterprise, development and progress, the building of the structure of liberty and free government on the broad and deep foundations of intelligence, virtue, morality and religion.

"This is the gate way to the Mexican republic and I want in this connection to express my great satisfaction with the cordial salutations tendered me by that great, distinguished president of our sister republic, President Diaz. I cannot go there, but they can come here. And we bid them welcome with open hearts.

"There never was such a unit in the United States as there is at this hour. There was never so much for a nation of 75,000,000 of people to be proud of as at this hour.

"We have sent our army and navy to distant seas and they have only added glory to our flag. They have brought no shame upon the American name. But it is not in the art of war we have to take our greatest pride. We are not a warlike people. We are not a military people. We never go to war unless we have to make peace. We want to exhaust every peaceable means for settlement before we go to war. And while we have authority to raise a hundred thousand troops the necessity does not exist for that number and we do not propose to raise but 75,000. So don't be alarmed about militarism or imperialism. We know no imperialism in the United States except the imperialism of the sovereign people."

IN NEW MEXICO.

Tucson, N. M., May 6—Shortly after leaving El Paso the train crossed the line into New Mexico and ran through a grazing section of territory. It was a hot and dusty ride. The first stop in the territory was made at Deming, where the president was welcomed by Governor Otero and his staff. There was a big crowd at the station and the president was given a warm greeting.

The presidential special is due at Phoenix in the morning.

CLEVELAND BANK CLOSES.

Directors Hope That All Depositors Will Be Paid.

Cleveland, O., May 6.—The doors of the Cuyahoga Savings and Banking company were not opened for business today. The following notice was pasted on the window:

"On account of continued absence of R. N. Pollock, president, the directors concluded to suspend payment until such time as they make an examination of affairs. It is confidently expected every depositor will be paid in full."

Hundreds of depositors, mostly working people, are clamoring for their money. The last statement published by the bank indicated individual deposit amounted to $209,176; loans on real estate, discounts, etc., $309,868.

President Pollock left the city ten days ago ostensibly for New York. Since that time nothing has been heard from him. The American Trust company has been made receiver for the bank. Walter D. Sayle has been appointed receiver for the United States Carbon company, which is involved in the bank suspension. Immediate cause leading to closing the bank was a demand made by one of the largest depositors Saturday to withdraw $22,000. The money was not forthcoming. Fearing a run when this should become known a meeting of directors decided to close the doors.

AUTHOR OF BREAD WINNERS.

Said to Be Miss Ida Harris Who Recently Died at Champaign.

Chicago, May 6—The Tribune tomorrow will claim it to be an established fact that the author of "The Bread Winners," a sensational novel published anonymously in 1883, was Miss Ida Harris of Champaign, Illinois, daughter of B. F. Harris, president of the First National bank at that place, who died a few days ago. At the time the book was published many reviewers asserted John Hay wrote the book. Some attributed it to W. D. Howells, and to half a dozen other well known novelists. It is claimed when her will is opened the executor will make an official announcement of the fact that Miss Harris wrote the book.

GEO. SNYDER DEAD

He Was a Local Character Known to Every One by Sight.

MENDED UMBRELLAS BY DAY

And Frequented Library at Night, Reading Good Books and Papers.

Frank Ripple of this city, received a letter yesterday from the sheriff at Magnolia, Miss., asking for information in reference to an old man named George Snyder who had been found dead in that city. It appeared that Snyder had a letter in his pocket from Ripple and the Magnolia authorities at once wrote to him for information.

Snyder was quite well known in this city, being the old German umbrella peddler who had made his home in this city for a number of years. Last November he left for the south, and before going he borrowed some money from Ripple, who is also a German, and left some property in his possession as security. The old man did not return the money as soon as expected and Ripple had written to him about it. That was the letter found in the possession of the dead man. It was thought that Snyder had a sister in this city, but it is said that she moved to Chicago some time ago. A letter was sent to William Herman, the tailor, who is in Chicago and who is thought to know the whereabouts of the sister.

Snyder was a low heavy set man, usually wearing a heavy black moustache and was a familiar character to the citizens of this city. While he made his home in this city he lived in a small shanty at the rear of the Smock boarding house on East Main street.

Many patrons of the library will remember Snyder. He was a regular visitor to the rooms, going there early in the evening and remaining until the hour for closing. He also selected good reading matter and put in his time gathering information that would be of value to him.

Mr. Ripple will inform the Magnolia authorities of what he knows about Snyder, but will make no effort to bring the body to this city. He is not a relative of the man, and in fact, did not know him intimately.

Six criminals captured in other cities and whose identity was desired were identified through the local gallery. The chief recommended that the city retain membership in the National Bureau of Identification.

Succeeds Williamson.

John W. Williamson, who has been appointed to a position as patrolman on the city force will be succeeded as night watchman by Ellsworth Mosby. The route patrolled by Williamson was a good one, and when he surrendered it, he was careful to select a man in whom he had absolute confidence and well know to be trustworthy. Mosby is a young colored man of good habits, sober and industrious. He begins his work tonight and for a week Williamson will go over the beat with him, giving him all of the pointers possible on the work.

The Deaconness Work.

At the regular meeting of the Luther League of the English Lutheran church Monday night Rev. H. Peters made an address on the "Deaconess Work of the Church." The deaconess office is of very early origin, even from apostolic times. Mr. Peters traced the history of the office through the ancient church to modern times. It was revived in 1836 by Rev. Fliedner, a Lutheran minister at Kaiserswerth, Germany, and he founded there the first mother house. The first effort to found a mother house in this country was made by Dr. Passavant in 1849 at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. There are now four mother houses, the largest and most imposing of which is the Mary Jane Drexel Home at Philadelphia. It is located opposite Girard college and is the finest building of the kind in the world, costing over $500,000. It was erected by John D. Lankenau in memory of his wife. There is one in Milwaukee which was founded by Dr. Passavant, and others in Baltimore and Omaha. The latter is a Scandinavian institution.

Two fundamental qualifications are required of the candidates, a christian character and a strong physical constitution. The candidate must be single or widowed and between the ages of eighteen and forty. There are three kinds of deaconesses, nursing, teaching and parochial. The names of the first two are self explanatory and the last are employed in large parishes to assist the pastor in visiting the sick and other parochial work. They take no vows and while they dress plainly there is no obligation to wear a uniform.

Bartenders Organize.

At a meeting of the bar tenders of the city, held Sunday afternoon, a union was formed. About 12 charter members were taken in and it is expected that a number of others will come in at a meeting to be held next Sunday afternoon. Most of the bar tenders of the city seem to favor the union and it is believed that they will all be members within a short time. The following officers were elected:

President—Walter Moore.

Vice President—Eugene Brown.

Secretary—Elmer Reavis.

Treasurer—Will Foster.

Exciting Runaway.

One of the teams from the Hines livery barn ran away yesterday afternoon on East Main street doing some damage to the rig but not injuring any one. The team dashed down East Main street and when at the corner of Broadway and Main one of the horses fell. That threw the other animal and both rolled on the pavement with the wagon on top of them. The horses were finally helped to their feet and neither of them was seriously scratched.

Hose Wagon Repairs.

The hose wagon from the West Main street is being overhauled and reconstructed. The work is being done by the man at the house under the direction of Roy Fowler, a member of the crew who is a wagon builder. The wagon is being strengthened by the addition of braces and will be much improved after being painted and varnished.

He was accidentally struck on the head with a brickbat and his scalp cut for about an inch. The wound bled rather freely and the teacher was alarmed and summoned a surgeon who dressed the injury.

CORNER STONE LAYING

Of the Anna B. Millikin Home to Be Conducted by Masons.

The trustees of the Anna B. Millikin Home have invited the Masonic fraternity to lay the corner stone of the new building. The time has not been determined but it will probably be fixed within ten days or two weeks. It is expected that the Grand Master will be present and conduct the ceremonies on behalf of the fraternity. It is also desired that Mrs. Millikin may be present and have some part in the ceremonies. More definite announcement will be made as the details are perfected There will no doubt be a large attendance on this occasion as the Anna B. Millikin home has a large place in the hearts of the people of this community.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it wouldbe used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. John E. King, N. L. Krone, C. F. Keeping Eggs.

Farmers often think that an egg is so well protected by its shell and the lining that no odors or bad flavors can get inside them, but the shell is very porous, and the egg very sensitive to odors. This is one reason why a soiled egg should never be packed with the others, and why the nests should always be provided with a clean straw or other bedding. After they are gathered they should not be kept where there are any strong odors, as kerosene, turpentine or onions. They should be turned often, as if this is not done the yolks sink to the under side and leaves more space for the air to get in to cause decay of the yolk, which decays much more quickly than the white or albumen of the egg.

PRICE OF CORN.

Quotations Are Apt to Fool the Farmer at This Time—Price in Country.

The high price of corn as quoted in dispatches from Chicago is apt to fool the Central Illinois farmers at this time. In Chicago it seems to be worth 55 and 56 cents. In the country the dealers are paying from 41 to 42 cents. A man who holds ten or twelve thousand bushels of corn said yesterday.

"I have not been able to get a higher bid than 41 or 42 cents. The price of 50 and 55 cents is for corn that will grade. I notice that in several hundred cars received in Chicago only eleven graded contract. When the price paid in the country is above 42 cents it must be on corn that is known to be up to grade otherwise it is not worth that figure.

An elevator man said; "I notice in the papers that local millers are not buying corn because they can't get the farmers to deliver it. The fact is that the local and country elevators are bursting with the grain. We are all filled up and have no place to put any more. That is the reason we don't buy now. In our case we are paying demurrage every day on about thirty cars of grain. It is shipped in by the country dealers who say that they have no room to store it. Neither have we and the result is we have to hold it in the cars and pay demurrage. The reports that have gone out would indicate that there is no corn in the country. It is a wrong impression."

Lucky Lincoln Farmer.

James Coddington, a retired farmer, living in Lincoln, has 25,000 bushels of corn he has held for several years, which he disposed of last week for 55c per bushel, the advance, price being due to the Phillips corner on that cereal. Rankin Bros., farmers, living south of Lincoln, have 30,000 bushels which they will probably sell soon. Part of it is four years old.

THIRTEEN CARS FRESH EGGS

Is the Total Shipped to Eastern Storage Men From Decatur.

This week Max Atlas, the Wabash avenue poultry shipper, is loading the last car load of eggs that he will send east to New York storage men. This will make car No. Thirteen. He had expected to send only twelve cars but last week received orders for an additional car. Each car contains 12,000 dozen eggs or 400 cases of thirty dozen each, a grand total of 156,000 dozen. He began shipping when eggs were selling at 10 cents. The highest price paid was 11½ cents. He said yesterday that the entire lot would average almost 11 cents. In former years the cheap eggs to the western consumer came about Easter time. Now that the storage men come into the market at that date the consumer does not get cheap fresh eggs until the storage men have supplied their needs. The expectation is that when the buying for storage is at an end the consumer in this section will get fresh eggs for about ten cents.

Refuses to Leave.

The Lincoln fire department has a large golden eagle caged at the station house, which has been in captivity nearly a year. The bird was named "Ben. F. Caldwell" by its democratic captors. Friday its cage was opened and the captive given its freedom. Ben. F. refused to leave his happy home, however, and the fire fighters were compelled to have it recaged. The bird will probably be killed and stuffed and presented to some local institution.

SUES FOR ATTORNEY FEES.

Case of Some Interest Tried Before Justice O'Mara Monday.

An interesting law suit was tried in the court of Justice O'Mara yesterday to settle a dispute over the fee charged for legal services by a Decatur attorney. The case was that of Attorney W. D. Tyler vs. Elizabeth Lambert for $200. Attorney J. M. Gray appeared for Tyler and Nelson & Whitley appeared for the woman. The evidence brought out the fact that some time ago Tyler had acted as the attorney for Mrs. Lambert while she was acting as executrix of the estate of her father. Later Mrs. Lambert had a suit against the estate growing out of the foreclosing of a mortgage for $1500 against the estate of her father, John Vance, which was given in consideration of her services in caring for him in his declining days. About that time Tyler went into court and asked that he be relieved from the position of attorney for the estate and another attorney was appointed in his place. He then pushed the case of Mrs. Lambert against the estate as her individual attorney with the result of receiving a verdict in her favor for the amount. He then asked a fee of $200 for his services and Mrs. Lambert refused to pay. She paid him $45 and refused to pay the balance. The suit followed. At the beginning of the case Mrs. Lambert tendered $50 as payment in full but that was refused by the plaintiff.

A number of attorneys of the Macon county bar were called in as witnesses to testify as to the value of the services rendered by the attorney. Among the attorneys called were David Hutchison, John Lee, D. L. Bunn, E. S. McDonald, Thos. Drew, W. E. Redmon. The attorneys varied considerable in their charges for the same amount of work. Some thought that $250 was none too high and others were as low as $100. The court thought that about $125 was right and rendered judgment for $85 over the amount of $45, which had been paid, including $5 which the plaintiff had spent in the interest of the case. Both sides seemed fairly well pleased with the verdict and each announced that they would not appeal it.

OTHER BUSINESS.

George Fletcher pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk Saturday night and Justice O'Mara fined him $5 and costs for the offense.

A tramp by the name of J. L. Ward was arraigned before Justice Provost yesterday on the charge of vagrancy and was given one hour to leave the city or to go to jail.

Two other fellows by the names of Dick Zimmerman and James Black who were arrested by the police Saturday night on suspicion were given a sentence for vagrancy and went to jail.

Charles Metzger of Ottawa, was chosen as chairman and H. Goldberger, of Peoria secretary. The business transacted was chiefly in regard to the festival of the district, which is to be held at Peru from June 22 to 24. Moline was chosen as the next seat of the executive committee. Bloomington has had this distinction for the past four years.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

He is a Wonder.

All who see Mr. C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, as he is now, cheerful, erect vigorous, without an ache, could hardly believe he is the same man, who a short time ago had to sit in a chair, propped up by cushions, suffering intensely from an aching back, in agony if he tried to stoop—all caused by chronic kidney trouble that no medicine helped till he used Electric Bitters and was wholly cured by three bottles. Positively cures Backache, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, all kidney troubles. Only 50c at N. L. Krone's, C. F. Shilling's and John E. King's drug stores.

RAIN WAS WELCOME.

Shower on Sunday Accompanied by Sharp Lightning.

The rain on Sunday afternoon was welcome to the farmers and truck gardeners even if it did make the baseball cranks hot. The fact that April was an exceedingly dry month left the ground in poor shape and the need of the rain was keenly felt. The shower was heavy enough to do a lot of good. Accompanying the storm was a sharp display of lightning which managed to hit in Decatur a few times.

LIGHTNING STRIKES.

Sunday afternoon during the thunder storm a bolt of lightning struck the belfry at the Morgan street hose house. The bolt did not really strike the tower but shivered the flagpole which surmounts it. The shock was distinctly felt by the men in the house and some of them said that they felt a tingling sensation, but none were knocked down or noticeably shocked. In the second story the effects were more plainly felt than on the ground floor. Captain Platt says that for some moments the smell and taste of sulphur was plainly noticeable in the air. The bolt of lightning seemed to go east after striking the house but did not touch the house except at the flag pole.

HIT A TREE.

About 7 o'clock Mike Davenport was beneath a tree on Wabash avenue just east of Morgan street when it was touched by lightning. The lightning did not shiver the trunk but cut off a number of twigs in the tree top. Davenport was blinded by the flash but says that except for a scare of a few seconds he did not feel any of its effects.

AT WARRENSBURG.

A short distance north of Warrensburg lightning struck and killed a horse belonging to Frank Ferry. South of the burg a short distance the lightning shivered several telephone poles.

HIT A CAR.

About 8 o'clock Sunday night lightning struck the trolley wire on Webster street and ran in on the light circuit of car No. 21 of the Riverside line. It burned out a couple of lamp sockets and an enclosed switch, and while it was on board made the inside of the car look like a Fourth of July fireworks display. A man who was on the car started for the door, and if the conductor hadn't grabbed him would have gotten off probably on his head. The woodwork took fire but was easily extinguished.

DAME CURTESY

Gives a Decatur Woman Some Pointers on How to Arrange a Formal Dinner.

The following appeared in the Chicago Herald on Sunday in the column edited by "Dame Curtesy:"

Decatur, Ill.—Will you please give me advice about lighting a table for a large formal dinner? Would gas or electric lights be preferable?

Neither. I repeat most emphatically, neither. Candles or tiny lamps should be used, and these on the table itself. All the light and brilliance should be focused upon the table and company seated about it. The rest of the room should be left with as little light as possible in order to concentrate the illumination upon the table decorations and settings. Rose, red, light green or deep yellow shades should soften the candle or lamplight.

Supreme Council Catholic.

The thirteenth biennial supreme council of the Catholic Knights of America will convene in St. Louis Tuesday, May 14, at the Southern hotel, and will continue in session three days or more. The St. Louis knights are making extensive preparations to receive the delegates and guests with true hospitality, a generous entertainment fund having been provided by the thirty eight branches of the city.

The Catholic Knights of America is one of the most powerful Catholic fraternal organizations of this country, having a membership of over 26,000. It is said to have paid to the widows and orphans of its deceased members over $10,000,000 during the twenty-seven years of its existence. The permanent headquarters of the order were established in St. Louis two years ago. Its supreme officers are: President, P. J. O'Connor, Savannah, Ga.; vice president, William Blakeslee, Hallettsville, Tex; secretary, Joseph C. Carroll, St. Louis; treasurer, Gerard Reiter, Vincennes, Ind.; trustees, William U. Smith, Louisville, Ky.; William A. Kelly, Kansas City, Mo., and J. C. Purcell, Pottsville, Pa.

Too Busy.

That the farmers are too busy is the only explanation offered for their failure to take advantage of the price now offered for corn. At Decatur there is practically nothing offered. At the Shellabarger mills, for instance, on Saturday there was one load of corn and Monday the same amount. For single loads the farmers are offered 40 cents and for large lots 42 cents.

When President McKinley declared to a southern audience that the country refused to divide the original territory and would retain all the territory it rightfully acquired the people cheered him. Though they voted for Bryan they believed in McKinley.

Under the recent decision of the president to increase the army to 70,000 men gives the country one soldier to every 1000 inhabitants and it may be said that while this is the smallest standing army in the world according to population there is no army in the world that can match it.

McKinley has won a great reputation for strong epigrams and in his present tour he has not detracted anything from that reputation. One of his latest is the following: "Commerce is a great diplomatist. Fair trading makes fast friends." There are volumes in this expression.

W. J. Bryan has been interviewed about the conditions prevailing in South Carolina on account of the advanced position taken by Senator McLaurin. Of course it is no trouble for Bryan to talk. He can do that without thinking and he did it this time successfully. He calls McLaurin a flopper and classes him with those who put the dollar above the man and yet he admits he McLaurin movement is liable to gain strength.

DEMOCRACY'S DANGER.

The recent revival of interest among politicians and public men in a movement for a new party in the south which will win over to its support the conservative and most desirable class of democrats has caused Representative Bankhead of Alabama, to make a critical study of the matter.

Although still maintaining his allegiance to the democratic party, he is quoted as heartily in favor of the masses of southern voters voting for principles in which they have a firm belief, but which they have hesitated to indorse at the polls because of the injection of the race problem into all political contests in the south and fear of negro domination. The members of congress from Alabama says that there has been such a wonderful impetus to commercial enterprise in the states south of Mason and Dixon's line that he is forced to admit if the negro could be eliminated as a factor in politics the suffrage in the southern states would be at least equally divided between the two great parties.

As soon as a condition is brought about which will relieve this fear the true sentiment of southern voters in favor of protection and sound money and expansion and the extension of our trade along the lines which the present administration has urged will be felt in the south, and sectional lines will be almost obliterated in the showing at the polls.

WON'T TALK.

Mayor-elect Shilling is keeping his own counsel. There can be no mistaking this fact because one cannot even find a single wise one who pretends to know the inside and when none of these geniuses can be found who will venture a tip things have been kept close at headquarters. There are some who criticise this course in the new mayor and advance the theory that he should have taken the city council into his confidence at least. This, of course, is a good theory and would be all right if it worked out all right but as a rule it seldom works that way. The logic of this plan is that every member of the council would have his way as far as he could and the final adjustment would involve satisfying a majority of the councilmen and letting the minority go. As a matter of fact the mayor is held responsible by the people for his administration, not the members of the city council, and he should therefore be accorded great liberty in selecting the men who are under his orders directly to carry out his policies. If the men a mayor nominates are not absolutely objectionable of course they ought to be confirmed for these reasons.

The noting that because appointments are made "by and with the consent of the city council" therefore the members of the council should be consulted before the names are presented to the council is not good. If this were true, presenting the names to the council for confirmation would be a mere formality.

The intention of the law is the same precisely as the constitutional provisions governing presidential appointments or those of the governor. It is no reflection upon the United States senate that the president does not consult it before submitting a nomination to it. The same is true as to the state senate and therefore it certainly is no reflection on a city council when a mayor decides upon his own nominees and presents them to the council for confirmation. On the other hand if the senate has reasons for refusing to confirm an appointment it is no reflection upon the appointing power. It often happens that a majority of the senate is opposed politically to the governor or president but this is never permitted to interfere with confirmations. Only valid reasons cut any figure with the confirming bodies. The appointing power and confirming power are distinct prerogatives that should not be confounded.

DR. THOMAS RECOGNIZED.

Gov. Yates has appointed another Macon county man to a position. The county has drawn another trusteeship. This time Dr. E. W. Thomas, chairman of the county central committee, who was one of the early Yates men, has been recognized. He has been made a trustee to the asylum for the incurable insane at Peoria. The asylum is a new one and has not yet been opened for occupancy and therefore the new trustees will have an important trust imposed upon them. Dr. Thomas will make an efficient and energetic official who will not disappoint the governor. The Herald congratulates the doctor and the governor as well and hopes he will make more selections from this county.

BENEFIT OF AGRICULTURE.

Appropriations Provide For a Number of Important Experiments.

One of the bills passed by the senate Wednesday was the house bill making agricultural appropriations, known as the associations' bill, because it had the endorsement of all the agricultural associations of the state. This bill carries $8000 appropriation for buying specimens of the breeds and market classes of animals for the Illinois agricultural college, $6000 for making feeding experiments, $10,000 for corn investigation; $10,000 for chemical and physical examination of soils; $10,000 for horticultural investigation, $5000 for dairy investigation; $3000 for sugar beet experiments; total, $51,000.

These appropriations means a great deal for Illinois agriculture and particularly as they begin the policy of state aid for studying the requirements of the different lines of agriculture under the different conditions of various portions of the state, instead of relying solely upon the United States government aid in agricultural education. Illinois is beginning to take step with such states as Michigan, Wisconsin, New York and Iowa in agricultural investigation. Our legislators have done well—and have been practically unanimous in the doing—in this recognition of the needs and rights of the farmer.

RETURNS FROM THE SOUTH.

Ell Dodson Says Common Labor is But Poorly Paid.

Ell Dodson has returned to Decatur from Shreveport, La., where he went last February with the expectation of locating. He secured work in the shops of the Kansas City Southern but the labor was more severe than he could stand and he returned to Decatur. Shreveport is a city of about 25,000 population, of which one-half is black. Dodson says that all of the common labor is done by negroes and that they get from $1 to $1.25 per day. When they get the latter price they seem to think and the man who employ them seem to feel that they are well paid. One negro teamster told Dodson that he worked from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m. as a regular thing, and often until 9 o'clock at night, and his wages were $6 per week. White men are fairly well paid. Dodson had a place in the car shops which paid him $1.75 per day. Carpenters get 30 cents per hour and work eight hours a day. Apparently there is plenty of work for all and there are few men idle.

Dodson has again taken service with the Decatur Traction company as a motorman.

Genuine Small Pox.

Mention was made a few days ago of the experience of a traveling man getting into the town of Brocklyn and finding business paralyzed as a result of the smallpox. Since then the state board of health has looked into the matter and found that 200 cases of the disease exist there. It is in mild form, however. The whole northwestern corner of Edgar county is honeycombed with smallpox.

HE SHOT HIMSELF

Floren Troub, a Moulder, Makes an Unsuccessful Attempt at Suicide.

INFLICTED A SCALP WOUND

It is Believed His Mind is Affected—Was Locked Up For the Night.

Floren Troub made a desperate attempt to take his own life about 6:30 o'clock last evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Troub at 650 East Lawrence street. After firing a bullet through the top of his head he ran back into the house and was engaged in changing his waist when the patrol wagon with Captain Sullivan and Officer Clements arrived and took charge of the young man. The attempted suicide created intense excitement in the neighborhood and although the act was committed in sight of several neighbors none of them hardly realized what had occurred until the young man had ran back into the house and then they did not care to venture in after him. The injury from the shot is not serious. The young man's mind seems to be unbalanced.

Young Troub is a moulder and has for several years been working at the Sattley and the Mueller foundries in this city. Recently he has been employed at the Mueller foundry. About the first of the week he quit work and although he has been about the shop almost every day he did not offer to go to work and made no explanation of his conduct to the foreman who asked him why he did not work.

About 6:20 o'clock last night the young man returned home and his mother prepared the evening meal. After they sat down at the table Floren refused to eat and began to act in a strange manner. When his mother asked what was the matter with him he replied: "It's the devil; I'll go kill myself now." Suiting the action to the word he arose and walking into another room procured a revolver and started out into the back yard. His mother followed him and grasping him by the hands attempted to wrench the revolver from him but with superior force he flung her off and then deliberately placing the revolver to his right temple pulled the trigger. At the sound of the shot Mrs. Troub fearing that he would shoot her ran to the house not noticing that her son had shot himself.

Floren followed her into the house. The blood was then running in a stream down his face from a wound over the temple and the effect of the shot appeared to have quieted his manner. His mother procured for him a pan of water and asked him to wash. He washed the blood from his face and by that time the wound had ceased to bleed. He then went into his room and was in the act of putting on a clean shirt when the police arrived. The one he had on when he shot himself was saturated with blood.

Just at that moment the patrol wagon with Captain Sullivan and Driver Clements arrived. Sullivan went into the house and found the young man in his room in the act of changing his shirt. The officer took him in charge and searched him for the gun but did not find it on his person. He was then asked to accompany the officer but refused and demanded to know why he should be arrested. After some argument he finally agreed to accompany the officer to the station but after they had gotten into the wagon he again became obstinate and pulling his coat wanted to fight.

Troub was taken to police headquarters and Dr. Merriweather was called to dress his wound. An examination revealed that the ball had penetrated the skin above the right temple at the edge of the hair and ranging up had come out two inches nearer the top of the head without entering the skull. The wound was a very slight one but had the gun been held an inch lower the result would have been instant death. Troub objected to the dressing of the wound and kept saying that he wouldn't let them kill him that way. After the wound was dressed the young man objected to being locked up for the night but was finally induced to go into a cell.

Troub was somewhat under the influence of liquor and it was said that he had been drinking hard for a week. The physician last night did not say whether Troub was crazed temporarily from the use of liquor or whether his mind was unbalanced in a more serious manner. He declared that he would kill himself as soon as he got home. His condition today will decide as to what will be done with him.

Troub has been a quiet fellow all his life and most of the time worked at his trade supporting his mother and younger sister. His actions at the Mueller shop recently have been such as to cause comment among the men and the foremen of the foundry called the attention of Mrs. Troub to the fact that her son did not seem to be just right and she was considering the idea of having him call on a physician. Yesterday noon Troub visited the Mueller shop and walked absentmindedly about but refused to enter into conversation with any of the men and turned a deaf ear to all remarks addressed to him. The young man is about 27 years of age.

Murder at Danville.

The city of Danville can furnish more murders than any town in the state not excepting Chicago. They have an average of one a month there. The last one occurred on Thursday night when Joseph Summers, a young coal miner, was shot in the stomach by John Pritchard, during a saloon brawl, and instantly killed. It is alleged that Summers was the aggressor.

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Decatur Lodge Will Be Instituted on Sunday May 12

M. W. Gleason who has been in Decatur in the interest of the new lodge of Knights of Columbus left yesterday for his home in Chicago. He will return on Monday and that night there will be a preliminary meeting, looking to the organization of the lodge here. The rules of the order permit only fifty signers on the petition for a charter and that number has been secured in this city. Monday night there will be a meeting at which time all of the details for instituting the lodge will be completed. The installation will be on Sunday, May 12, the work commencing in the afternoon. When the secret work has been completed there will be a banquet Sunday night but just where that will be has not been determined. The installation work will probably be conducted by a Chicago team. The expectation is that there will be a number of visitors from Peoria, Chicago and Terre Haute. While only fifty members have signed the petition for the charter the impression prevails that not less than 200 members will be secured here for the lodge.

CENTER OF POPULATION.

It Is Located About Six Miles From Columbus, Ind.

An official bulletin was issued by the census bureau fixing the center of the population of the United States in latitude 39 degrees, 9 minutes 36 seconds north, and longitude 85 degrees, 48 minutes, 54 second west. This point is in southern Indiana, about six miles east of Columbus, the county seat of Bartholomew county, Indiana. It was mapped out when the preliminary announcement was made some months ago. The new bulletin, however, contains the exact figures showing the geographical location of it relation to the center of population ten years ago.

Since 1890 the center of population has moved westward a little over fourteen miles and southward a little less than three miles. This is the smallest movement of the center of population ever noticed since the beginning of the government. It seems to indicate quite clearly that the day of abnormal increases in population throughout the western states has passed by.

WEDDING NEXT TUESDAY.

Miss Mattie Bachrach to Be Married to Benjamin Bornheim.

The marriage of Miss Mattie Bachrach daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bachrach to Benjamin Bornheim of Baltimore, will be celebrated next Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, on West Wood street. Mr. Bornheim arrived from Baltimore several days ago. The ceremony will be performed by Rabbi Charles Levi of Peoria. The wedding will be a home affair but it is expected that there will be a number of relatives and friends present from neighboring and eastern cities.

Odd Beat on a News Item.

Ex-State Senator Charles Bent, who has been editor of the Whiteside Sentinel at Morrison, Ill., for a quarter of a century, was beaten badly by another newspaper in getting a Morrison item—that of the secret marriage of his daughter. Last February Miss Ruth Bent visited a friend in Knox, Ind., where she met the brother of her hostess, and it proved to be a case of love at first sight. When the young woman returned to Morrison she was Mrs. Fred A. Sapp, wife of a newspaper man. This fact, however, she did not make known, and it was not until Mr. Sapp came to Morrison last week to claim his bride that the reporters of Bent's rival paper learned of the marriage and printed the item.

Board Must Meet.

The decision in the case of the Chicago teachers against the state board of equalization regarding the assessment of Chicago corporations has left some doubt in the minds of the attorney as to what board shall be served with the writs. The board that overlooked the assessment is no longer in existence. New members of the board have since been elected but he had nothing to do with the assessment and consequently can't be called together to perform the duty of assessing the corporations. It has therefore been determined to have the writs served on the members of the old board.

Appointment For John Spalding

Word has been received by Dr. T. B. Spalding that his son, Dr. John Spalding who is located at Kenosha, Wisconsin, has been appointed city physician, president of the board of health, and milk inspector for the city. A fine $30000 hospital is being built by the city which will be in his charge when completed.

ODD EXPLOSION

At the Mueller Factory Sets Fire to the Foundry Roof.

SHOP FIRE FORCE CALLED

And the Entire City Department Was Responded — The Damage Small.

A peculiar explosion occurred at the Mueller factory yesterday forenoon and started 20 fires in different parts of the buildings and made brisk work for the private fire department at the shops. An alarm was turned into the city fire department and the fire crews turned out so promptly that they were there in time to do work had their services been needed. Fortunately the use of the hand fire extinguishers and the chemically prepared water used by the bucket brigade at the shops had the fire out just as the fire crews pulled up in front of the factory. Although the damage was so slight that the company will not put in a claim for insurance, it was a narrow escape from a bad fire as the tar roof of the factory was burning in 20 places at one time.

The cause of the fires was peculiar and resulted from an explosion in the brass furnace. Some time ago a quantity of old brass was brought from an Indiana city which had been overhauling its water works plant. Among the pieces of brass purchased were a number of small brass balls which had been used for heads of plungers on a water pump. The balls were about two inches in diameter and hollow, leaving a shell of brass about half an inch in thickness. While being used on the plungers they had been subjected to terrific pressure against the water and the pressure had been such that it had forced enough water through the pores of the brass to fill the center with water. No one suspected that there was any water in the balls and, as is customary in melting the pieces of brass, they were thrown into the melting pot over the furnace and soon the metal was boiling. At that time the heating was being done in the brass foundry. The heat is intense in the furnace and it was less than five minutes before a terrific explosion occurred which lifted the lid off the melting pot and sent the white hot metal flying in all directions. The hot metal lodged in the rafters of the foundry and a small fire was started. It was extinguished by the aid of the chemicals without serious consequences. To guard against another explosion a small yard furnace was set up in the yard and several more of the balls were placed in the melting pot. It was not understood at that time what had caused the explosion. In a few moments several more explosions occurred which knocked the furnace over and sent the hot metal flying in all directions. The boiling metal fell on the tarred roof of the foundry and small shop buildings scattered over the yard and the result was that in the next minute the roof was blazing in 20 places. The alarm was turned into the city department and the fire call in the shops was sounded.

The Mueller company had taken precaution to equip its factory for fire protection of the best kind. In various parts of the factory are placed large hand engines. Also throughout the shop are placed large tanks of chemically charged water. Within the tanks are placed 12 buckets, one standing within the other, so that when one bucket is drawn out the other fills immediately and no time is lost in dipping the water. A fire brigade has been organized in the shop and every man knows just what to do in case of a fire. When the fire call is sounded every man goes at once to his position and no time is lost in getting prompt action on the fire as buckets of the chemically prepared water are passed along the line to the scene of the fire. In addition to the hand engines and buckets each corner of the room is equipped with a coil of hose connected with a large standpipe in the factory so that a large quantity of water can be procured immediately. The private fire brigade worked promptly and had the fire out by the time the department arrived.

Robert Mueller in speaking of the cause of the fire stated to a reporter that the brass balls had become filled with water and when they were thrown into the melting pot the water within the balls generated so much steam that the pressure caused the explosion.

A number of the employes who were working near the furnace had close calls from serious injury from the pieces of flying metal. C. Katrum had his hand bruised in a painful manner during the excitement but is not able to tell just how or when it occurred. Frank Shutz had his eyes filled with the flying cinders from the furnace but it is not thought that his eyesight will be injured.

The Muellers were well pleased with the action of the city fire department in getting to the fire so promptly. Although the distance from the fire house is half a mile the entire fire department was drawn up in front of the factory in less than two minutes and several leads of hose were laid from the neighboring water plugs. Mr. Mueller in speaking of the promptness of the firemen, said: "As it happened there was no need of the city crews as we had the fire under control, but I was surprised that the department could get to the scene so quickly and be ready for business. But the fire gotten beyond the control of our private brigade I feel sure that the city crews would have prevented a serious fire."

As a mark of their appreciation the Muellers sent a box of cigars to the firemen with a note to the chief thanking them for their promptness and assuring the firemen that their good work is appreciated.

BIG DEMAND FOR BERRIES.

Higher Prices Paid Else Where Leaves a Scarcity in the Decatur Market.

There has been a scarcity of strawberries in the local market for the past few days. Very few of them are coming to this market and the local dealers have been unable to get enough to supply the demand even at high prices.

One dealer yesterday placed an order in Chicago for the fruit. He stated that he did not want to take any chances on getting them here and did not state any price to the Chicago dealers because he did not want to restrict them and thereby take chances on not having his order filled. It is likely that the fruit will sell today at 20 cents a quart. The berries ought to be selling at considerably less than that figure right now but the demand for them in the big cities keeps the price up.

It was stated yesterday that only about twenty-five or thirty cases are being received here daily. Ordinarily at this time of the year the shipment should be one hundred cases. The fruit is coming from Arkansas and Mississippi.

The vegetable lines today will be the most complete that has yet been offered to the local patrons although it shows no particular improvement over the past few weeks. There will be no change in the varieties but in some instances the prices will be lower.

A SCRAP AT WARRENSBURG.

Peace Maker is the Only Man Who Received a Mark.

At Warrensburg Thursday night, James Cook and William Ishmael had an encounter. They drew their knives and made threats of carving but that was as far as the knife play proceeded. Cook, however, slugged Ishmael one and then B. F. Markland and others interfered. Markland has been police office and he was so in the habit of doing the act of peace maker that he quite forgot that he no longer wore the badge and hopped in between the combatants. About that time Cook had started a vicious swipe at Ishmael but Markland got his face in the way. Others came in and took part in the peace proceedings and no further harm was done. Sam Hitchie, the city attorney was called on to come out and prosecute the case against Cook, who had been arrested on a warrant issued on complaint of Markland. Sam declined, because it was after business hours and the hearing has not yet been held.

An Alleged Stradivarius.

The old fiddlers' contest at Effingham under the auspices of the ladies of the Christian church, was the means of making a valuable discovery of a rare violin. The violin has been an heirloom in the family of W. G. Sprinkle for nearly two centuries, and was considered worthless until a few days ago, when the curosity of a friend discovered that it was made in 1714 and is a genuine Stradivarius, having the maker's name engraved upon it. It is said to be worth $10,000.

Sutten Acquitted.

The trial of young Sutten, charged with stealing a watch and pawning the same in Decatur, was heard in the circuit court Wednesday and Sutten was vindicated.

The evidence showed that Sutten won the watch on a bet, wagering $5 against it on a proposition. Happening to be in Decatur he pawned the watch. The fellow that lost the watch "squealed" and had him arrested on the charge of theft. The boy was acquitted. He is a brother of John Sutten, the Sixteenth street liveryman.—Mattoon Star.

Another Carnival at Mattoon.

The directors of the Mattoon Free Street fair met Tuesday night and started the ball rolling towards holding another carnival this fall. A public meeting has been called for next Monday night. At that time the directors will present the report of the association's standing, and it will be definitely decided whether a street fair will be given in Mattoon.

THREE TAILED COMET.

Visible to Persons Who Arise at Four in the Morning.

The three tailed comet may now be seen under favorable atmospheric conditions by those citizens who can rouse themselves from their beds at 4 o'clock in the morning. It may be seen with the naked eye a little to the north of the rising point of the sun. At that time in the morning there is usually a hazy horizon, but those who have been so fortunate as to escape this haze say that it can be seen even after the sunrise above the horizon. Astronomers estimate that this three pronged comet is about 80,000,000 miles distant from this planet and have not yet determined whether the three tails are fanshaped or spread at acute angles.

A Health Officer.

The board of health has decided that a health officer would be preferable to a board of health in this city and have decided to so recommend to the new mayor and city council. Being a member of the board of health has heretofore been nothing more than a way in which a mayor complimented certain of his medical friends. There is a very small fee connected with the office. Experience with the small pox during the past year has changed the minds of the physicians in regard to serving on this board. They could not escape calling on the patients and when this fact became noised about their regular patrons were inclined to fight shy of them. Being a member of the board of health loses its attractiveness under these conditions.

The Bankruptcy Law.

During the two years in which the bankruptcy law has been in operation 48,000 insolvents, with liabilities aggregating $700,000,000, have taken advantage of its provisions. In other words, 40,000 people who owned more than they could possibly pay have paid what they could and have been given an opportunity to make a new start. The law has added to the business assets of the United States by putting the heart of hope into many men who under the load of obligations impossible for them to meet would have lacked the energy which they will now be able to put into the struggle for existence.

Nothing In It.

John Wilson who has served two years as janitor at the courthouse it is said will not be a candidate for the place when the board meets in June. Until they get into the place a lot of fellows think the position of courthouse janitor is a snap. If the work is properly done it is anything but an easy task. It may be said too that no one has yet had the job and died from overwork.

Brick Famine.

The Terre Haute papers say that there is a brick famine in that city and that for that reason building in that city must wait at least until the demand can be filled. The capacity of the seven brick yards at Terre Haute is 700,000 per day.

THE TAX LIST.

It is Small This Year Compared to That of Previous Years.

The delinquent tax list is published this morning in the Semi-Weekly Herald. It is not nearly so large as in previous years and it of itself is an indication that times are good among the residents of the county. They all had money with which to pay their taxes promptly. There is a remarkable thing about this list. It shows that there are three townships in the county in which there is not a single piece of property on which there is delinquent tax. These townships are Austin, Milam and Hickory Point. There are a number of other townships in which only a few pieces of property are reported delinquent.

DOES NOT FIX BLAME.

Coroner's Jury Inquires Into the Death of Mrs. Adam Stoker.

Monday morning Coroner Dawson impaneled a jury and held an inquest on the remains of Mrs. Adam Stoker, who was killed by a Wabash passenger train at Monroe street on Saturday afternoon. The witnesses were Dr. Malenthal, Clarence Opie, W. O. Parmenter, James B. Sanford, J. A. Henry, T. C. Entler, and William Wells. The evidence did not develop anything new. It was about the same as the facts detailed by the newspaper accounts on Sunday morning.

The jury hearing the evidence was composed of Dr. Malenthal, J. H. Krebs, H. C. Wire, C. E. Johnson and S. H. Jameson. Their verdict was to the effect that Mrs. Stoker came to her death by being struck by a Wabash passenger train. No attempt was made to fix the responsibility for the accident.

Mrs. Willis Johnson, mother of the victim of the accident is at Springfield in Dr. Prince's sanitarium where she had gone to have an operation performed for cataract. The surgeon in charge there said that it would never do to tell her of the accident at this time, owing to the fact that a burst of weeping would likely result in making her totally blind. On that account she has not been told of the sad fate of her daughter, and will not be for several days to come.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A W Sawtelle of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me, 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store, smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by J E King and C F Shilling.
